General Information

The Jerry Martinez Memorial Arabian Western Pleasure ATR Championship

The Colorado Arabian Horse Club is proud to dedicate the Arabian Western Pleasure ATR Championship in memory of Jerry Martinez.

Jerry devoted decades of his life to the Arabian horse community, serving as CAHC President for 13 years and managing this very show for many years. He wasn't just the person behind the scenes—he was also a devoted exhibitor who loved competing in this very class with his beautiful Arabian horses, including Khareeb, Kaset, Reno LP, Khemosonni, Red Hott, and Vctory Dream.

This class is especially meaningful to our family, as Jerry's daughter, Kelly Meyer, now has the privilege of carrying on his legacy as Show Manager. In his honor, the Martinez family is proud to sponsor a custom championship trophy buckle for the winner of the Arabian Western Pleasure ATR Championship.

We hope this award celebrates not only excellence in the show pen, but also the sportsmanship, dedication, and love of the Arabian horse that Jerry shared with so many.
